Informix driver settings

If you have purchased and installed Borland SQL Links for Informix, you can choose Informix under Drivers in the left pane of the Configuration page in the BDE Administrator or can create or select an Informix alias on the Databases page. The Informix driver settings appear in the right pane. You cannot change those with bold labels.

For more information, see:

Connecting to Informix

Informix driver settings